COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is designed to be a fun and instructional class. Combined hours from riding and workshops are required to fulfill USU criteria for this course.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- Students are allowed 1 absence from class and must log 24 hours of riding/class time throughout the course to receive a Passing grade.
- Students must keep a detailed logbook containing descriptions of all class, group and individual rides. Logbooks are DUE at the end of the course. No late logbooks will be accepted!
- Students must have their own road bike and a Snell/ANSI approved helmet in order to participate in this class.

EVALUATION

1. Course is graded Pass/Fail.
2. Additional class/group rides will be scheduled throughout the class to help students meet riding time requirements. Group rides will leave from the HPER building unless otherwise notified.

PARTICIPANT SAFETY

- This is a non-competitive class. All participants should work at their own level.
- Students must read the Responsibilities of Student and Faculty in Activity Classes handout and sign the Informed Consent Form before participating in class rides.
- An approved helmet must be worn at all rides.
- Students are encouraged to ride with others for safety in case of mechanical failure or accidents.

COURSE FEE DESCRIPTION

A course fee will be used for payment of instruction.
